"He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures."

(Lk 24:45)

In 2019, Pope Francis established the Sunday of the Word of God to be celebrated each year on the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time. As the Holy Father stated in his apostolic letter instituting the observance, "Devoting a specific Sunday of the liturgical year to the word of God can enable the Church to experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of his word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches before the world." (Aperuit illis, no. 2)

On January 21, 2024, in observance of the Sunday of the Word of God, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, through a grant from the American Bible Society, will offer a "Sunday Seminar Series" of four videos about Sacred Scripture in the life of the Church. These videos, available in English and Spanish, will feature bishops and biblical scholars, accompanied by discussion/reflection questions.

<https://catholic.bible/sunday-of-the-word-of-god/>.

Through these videos, we hope to bring people into an encounter with Scripture. May God's people be inspired and challenged to see, understand, and engage with Scripture in a new and prayerful way.

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children

God our Creator, we give thanks to you, who alone have the power to impart the breath of life as you form each of us in our mother's womb; grant, we pray, that we, whom you have made stewards of creation, may remain faithful to this sacred trust and constant in safeguarding the dignity of every human life.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Praying The Holy Rosary

The Rosary is a Scripture-based prayer. It begins with the Apostles' Creed, which summarizes the great mysteries of the Catholic faith. The Our Father, which introduces each mystery, is from the Gospels. The first part of the Hail Mary is the angel's words announcing Christ's birth and Elizabeth's greeting to Mary. The Mysteries of the Rosary center on the events of Christ's life. There are four sets of Mysteries: Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious and Luminous.

"There is no problem, I tell you, no matter how difficult it is, that we cannot solve by the prayer of the Holy Rosary!"
 - Sister Lucia, of the seers of Fatima

BLESS YOURSELF: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. (As you say this, touch your forehead with your right hand when you say Father, touch your breastbone when you say Son, touch your left shoulder when you say Holy, and touch your right shoulder when you say Spirit.)

THE CREED: I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into Hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into Heaven, and sits at the right hand of God, the Father almighty. He shall come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

THE OUR FATHER: Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

HAIL MARY: Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

GLORY BE to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

FATIMA PRAYER: Oh my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of Hell; lead all souls to Heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy. Amen.

THE SALVE REGINA: Hail, Holy Queen, mother of mercy; our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn, then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us. And after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.

O GOD, WHOSE only-begotten Son by His life, death and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life; grant, we beseech Thee, that by meditating upon these mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

MEMORARE: Remember oh most Blessed Virgin Mary that never was it known, that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto thee, oh virgin of virgins, our Mother. To you do we come, before you we stand, sinful and sorrowful. Oh mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your mercy, hear and answer them. Amen.

DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE LEGAL PROTECTION OF UNBORN CHILDREN JANUARY 22

SERMON ON MARK 1:14-20

There is a television series on Netflix called, "Beef," which is winning all types of awards. It is described as an "existential thriller." Two strangers, named Danny and Amy (played by Steven Yuen and Ali Wong), devise various schemes to seek revenge on each other for a car accident in a store parking lot. Their feud becomes a "road rage on steroids" that changed their lives forever. It culminates in a car chase where both of them drive off a cliff. They are alive, but have no way to contact anyone. Amy forces Danny at gun point to forage for food, which leads them to eat poisonous berries. Believing they are dying; they share with each other about the pain in their lives. Danny is a failing contractor. The accident that sparked the feud occurred in the parking lot of Amy's failed business she was closing. They walk back together to the city. Danny was admitted into the hospital where he falls into a coma. Amy hugs him passionately. When Danny awakes, he returns the embrace.

There is a scene in this show where she asks her therapist a question that revealed to me how wonderful God's Good News is. Amy asks, "Do you think love can really be unconditional? You know, there must be some point where we all fall outside the reach of love. Like the mistake is so big and then the love has to stop." When I heard that, bells rang and lights flashed in my mind. I yelled out to my three cats sleeping in my lap, "That's God's Good News!" No one falls outside the reach of His Love. Jesus proclaimed that God's Love never stops. Your biggest sin, your worst mistake, cannot keep God from loving you. That's what unconditional love means. I remembered the words of actor Martin Sheen when a news reporter asked him to comment about the drug abuse and craziness of his son Charlie, who got fired from the show "Two and a Half Men." Martin calmly replied, "I'll have to love him more."

The first humans with a soul, Adam and Eve, screwed up really bad in the Garden of Eden. Satan was so jealous that God made humans. Psalm 8:6-7 gives the reason: "You made him (humans) a little lower than the angels; You crowned him with glory and honor. You made him ruler of the works of Your hands." Satan felt this honor should have belonged to him. He sought revenge against God by tempting Adam and Eve to turn against God. The very first sin was idolatry. "You will not surely die," the serpent told her. "For God knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God. (Gen 3:4-5) The root of every sin is idolatry. I, the creature, turn away from the Creator. I make myself a god.

But God has not abandoned us. Jesus is the arms of God reaching out to us with a never-stopping Love, a reach that has no limit. The Good News becomes visible in the flesh of Jesus, who came to our rescue. "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand." (Mark 1:15) This is God's decisive moment to win us back. It's like Jesus is saying, "Pay attention! See! I come to save you!"

So what should our response be? You must do two things: "Repent and believe in the Good News." Here is where Christians (especially Catholics) find a stumbling block. Repentance means to turn around. Turn away from the sin and turn back to God. But too often Christians let guilt get in the way of their repentance. The guilt feelings keep them from believing that God forgives them. Often have I dealt with people who can't repent because their guilt is so great, they can't believe God really forgives them. "Why should I go to church? God probably doesn't want me anyways." They are afraid the church walls will fall on them.

Believing in the Good News requires that you not only accept and believe God's Mercy, but you have to forgive yourself. There is a true story about Joyce Brown, who had a life-after-death experience. She carried shame for many years because she treated her mother so badly as a teenager. She never got a chance to tell her mom she loved her. She never got a chance to ask forgiveness. Mom died suddenly from a heart attack. Joyce herself died suddenly, but was revived. She had a life review in Heaven that healed her shame.

In the life review, she expected to see the times she hurt her mom, the times of disrespect and ugly behavior. To her surprise, there was nothing. She even asked the angel why there is no record of her meanness. The angel replied, "It was wiped out." Joyce asked, "Why?" The angel replied, "Because at those times your mom forgave you."

God says, "For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more." (Hebrews 8:12) When you repent, God remembers your sin no more. Why should you?" Blessings ... Fr. Mike
